

Press Release-26.02.2011

Ms. Manju Yagnik, Vice-Chairperson, Nahar Group awarded 'Female Real Estate Professional of 2011'

For her immense contribution to real estate by setting high standards and creating best practices, Ms. Manju Yagnik, Vice-Chairperson, Nahar Group was honored as the 'Female Real Estate Professional of the Year 2011' by Realty Plus, one of the leading Real Estate publications in the country.

The Realty Plus Real Estate Excellence Awards is a platform where recognition is given to contributions made by Individuals, Developers, Architects, Interior Designers, State Government, Property Advisors etc who have played a key role in the stupendous growth of the Indian Real Estate sector.

The jury comprising some of the industry experts included Mr. Anuj Puri, Chairman and Country Head, JLL, Mr. Vikram Bakshi, Managing Director, McDonalds India, Prof. Amit Kapoor - Management Development Institute, Gurgaon & Chairman, Institute of Competitiveness, Mr. Anurag Mathur – Managing Director, Cushman & Wakefield (India), Dr. P.S.N. Rao – Chairman, NAR-India & Head – Department of Housing, School of Planning and Architecture among other eminent personalities.

Nahar Group is one of India's leading real estate developing companies having developed over 15 million sq. ft of landmark residential and commercial structures in various parts of the country. As the Vice-Chairperson of the Nahar Group, Ms. Manju Yagnik who has been associated with the Group for over 21 years, is involved in all aspects of the work flow starting with planning, land acquisition, construction, landscaping, marketing, vendor negotiations right up to community building initiatives at the project area and after sales service.

Ms. Manju Yagnik has been the recipient of a host of awards including "Woman Entrepreneur of the Year Award" in 2007. To share her vast knowledge and experience with the real estate thought leaders of GCC countries, she was specially invited as the lead speaker at the First Annual Gulf Real Estate Fundamentals Conference 2008 in Bahrain, where she spoke on "Real Estate Opportunities in Emerging India".